Offerings and Sales at the Richmond Tobacco Exchange-Internal Revenue Collections-Foreign Advices-

NEW YORK, May 16.- The dealings at NEW YORK, May 16.—The dealings at the Stock Exchange to-day were unusually light, only 48,820 shares of stock and $500,000 of railway and miscellaneous bonds being dealt in. Stocks opened rather heavy on offerings by professional operators, who fear Cuban complications and a continuation of the efflux of gold. The uncertainty regarding the position of McKinley on the currency question was also used against the market by the bears. This subject, as a matter of fact, is the also used against the market by the hears. This subject, as a matter of fact, is the most discussed on the Stock Exchange, and to-day brokers really paid more attention to this than they did to their legitimate business. It was again reported that the views of McKinley will be given and about his the control of the sevent and appears but the control of the sevent and about the control of the sevent and th legitimate business. It was ported that the views of McKinley will be given out shortly, but the rumor received little credence. Notwithstanding the preponderance of bearish sentiment, the decline in prices, except in rare instances, was confined to the fractions. Manhattan suffered the greatest loss. falling from 163½ to 162½, and lacked support throughout. The March quarterly statement is still having an adverse influence, and there is more or less talk about a reduction in dividends. Sugar was the most active stock and ruled weaker. Bay State Gas, Leather preferred, and Tobacco, however, were firm. weaker. Bay State Gas, Leather preferred, and Tobacco, however, were firm. Businers in the standard railway issues was extremely light. St. Paul, which is the most active outside of Manhattan figured for 2,400 shares. Commission houses were without orders and London firms did little or nothing. Even the bucket shops are complaining, and some of the proprietors have determined to cut commission in order to keep the little trade they now have. Speculation closed weak for Manhattan and barely steady for the general list. Bonds were quiet weak for Manhattan and barely steady for the general list. Bonds were quick aud firm. The sales aggregated $506,000. Money on call 2½ per cent.; prime mercantile paper, 5055½ per cent. Sterling exchange is dull and barely steady, with notual business in bankers' bills at 487½ 6457% for sixty days and 4880/488% for demand; posted rates, 4880/489%; commercial bills, 4804/6487½. Bar silver, 67%, Government bonds steady. State bonds dull. Railroad bonds firm. Silver at the board was neglected.

The banks now hold $18,577,975 in excess of legal requirements.

The New York Fiftancier says this week:
The statement of the Associated Banks of New York city for the week ending May 16th reflects the causes which are at present operating to diminish the excess reserve and incidentally to sustain the mency market on something like a firm basis. The decrease of the reserve for the week was $1,665,150, making the total surplus $18,577,975. As was pointed out last week, the gold export operations were not fully shown in the statement. Adding the two weeks reports, it is seen that while ten millions have gone abroad, the decrease in the reserve was only $4,336,300. The banks have been called upon during the same period for over seven millions of Government deposits, part of the latter being still unpaid. The repayment of the Government deposits has not yet been completed, and probably a percentage of that actually turned over to the treasury does not show in the current statement, but it will be noted that the banks are engaged in a transaction that involves a less of $17,000,000 the current statement, but it will be noted that the banks are engaged in a transaction that involves a less of $17,000,000 and over, counting the exports of the last two weeks. Against this is the movement of interior funds, which have not been heavy enough to overcome the apparent discrepancy between the $4,356,00 lots actually reported, and the amount of the second of the se discrepancy between the $4,336,560 loss actually reported, and the amount exposed and the amount exposed and increased the second over to the treasury. Unless there is an increased movement from the interior a contingency tot likely, in view of present exchange rates, the statement should show a still further market decrease in the reserve before a balance is adjusted. The outlook at present favors a firm money market but whether the situation will detect the structure of the state of the structure of the state of the structure ket, but whether the situation will de-velop rufficiently to cause a diminution of gold exports is uncertain. Another call from the treasury will end a factor that has been used to strengthen the money market, with the object of making such exports difficult.

The expansion of $2,401.700 in loans was tenders being offset by a gain of $653,400 in specie.

NEW YORK DRY GOODS MARKET. NEW YORK, May 16.-There has been a poor attendance of buyers in the dry goods market to-day, bupstness on the spot being left largely to the operations of representatives of out-of-town houses, and these were doing little in any de-partment. The mail order demand was moderate, and the aggregate sales of the day reached but an indifferent total. The week closes with a decidedly quiet tone prevailing in both the cotton and woollen goods divisions.

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 16.-Wheat made a fractional gain in price to-day after a half session's trading, in which the main feature was duliness. The weaher still feature was duliness. The weaher still continues to be the principal factor, and early in the day caused weakness and a decline of ½c. The Southwest was having abundant moisture, and the crops were receiving benefit therefrom. What rains were still falling in the Red River Valley was not viewed so favorably. Late in the session shorts proceeded to take in their profits, and in so doing put prices above the close of yesterday. They were doubtless induced to buy their wheat on reports of export business here and at the seaboard. July wheat opened from 62½c/c2½c/c2½c, sold between 61½c/c and 62½c, closing at 62%c/c2½c,—igc. higher than yesterday. Cash wheat was easy, closing steady.

int has been used to strengthen the oney market, with the object of making the expansion of $2.401.700 in loans was tavorable feature of the statement, in increase in that item alone in the st thirteen weeks having been nearly of $0.000. The banks lost in cash last week having been merely any business was transacted in corn, but in that particular the market did not differ from what has been for many days. It was, perhaps, a triffer more oppressive in its stillness than the average, however. The shortness of the second of $1.574,100 in legal that generally tended to restrict trading. The tone was derived exclusively from wheat, prices decling early and recovering later. July corn opened at 20%c. sold at 20%c., closing at 20%c. corn was steady to %c. lower, the close exhibiting some firmless.

Oats-The market for oats was quiet, with no feature or incident to make note-worthy the trade. Practically prices were established by the other markets. declines and railies, responsive to similar movements in wheat and corn, taking place. July oats closed unchanged from yesterday. Cash oats were firm, closing steady.

Provisions—Trading in the provision pit was confined to the transactions of a few commission houses and packers, and denoted anything but interest in the situation. Naturally following the hog market, which has declined, prices of product eased off, afterwards remaining fairly steady at the decline. Responsive to this firmer tone of grain, there was a recovery, which raised values above the opening quotations all through the list. July pork closed 2½/65c. higher than yesterday, July lard unchanged, and Julyribs 2½c. higher. Domestio markets were

TOOK THREE STRAIGHTS.

RICHMOND AGAIN DEFRATED PETERSBURG BY HEAVY BATTING.

The Visitors Put Up an Exceedingly Ragged Fielding Game-Dillon Was in the Box for Petersburg.

Manager Bradley sat in his private box yesterday, ami his face was a luxuriant hot-bed of happy smiles. He was so intensely happy that he could hardly speak, but at times he would give a spasmedic gasp of pleasure, and murmur: "They are coming my way now."

Then he cast his eye over the forty-five happy resters who were enjoy-hundred happy rooters who were enjoy-ing themselves to a defre of insanity, and thought of the well-filled grand-stand, the heavily-loaded bleacheries, and last, but not least, his thoughts turned to the box-office, and his happiness was complete.

This changed order of things was due to the recent superior playing that the Champions have been doing. At last it looks like the tide of fortune has changed.

IN THIRD PLACE.

The League is one month oid, and Richmond is tied for third place. This speaks well for the team, in view of the adverse circumstances against which they have thus far had to contend.

The crowd yesterday was the largest of the season and all on account of the the seasors and all on account of the improvement in the work of the home team. This should prove to the management that the public will not patronize a fosing club, and that it is to their advantage to have a first-class team or none at all.

none at all.

The game yesterday was one-sided and the Champions so far out-classed the exchampions that there was little interest in the contest. Dillon, formerly of Richmond, pitched for the visitors, and showed up fairly well until the eighth, when he went to pieces. He was given miserable support.

Malarkey, while he was hit rather freely by Petersburg, was, nevertheless, masbiniarkey, while he was he rather they by by Petersburg, was, nevertheless, mas-ter of the situation, and showed head-work when it came to the rub. Richmond fielded well, and again won-by their heavy stick-work:

NOTES. The Little Men will play the Richmond and Norfolk games on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, and now that the Hust-lers are playing pennant-winning ball, their little representatives will doubtless have lots of ginger in them and walk away with the Lilliputan Clams in great style. Mr. Crowder has invited the boys of the Masonic Home to witness a performance of the small ball players, which invitation has been accepted, and they will in all probability be in attendance upon to-morrow's game.

Arrangements have been made whereby a powerful light will be thrown upon the apparatus, making the gyrations of the manikins appear in all their mechanical rfection adding very much to the artistic ceess of this truly attractive exhibi-

The game between Norfolk and Fortsmouth to-day was an uninteresting one from start to finish, abounding in errors and poor playing generally. ROANOKE, VA., May 16.-Special .-Boylan's great pitching won to-day's game for Lynchburg. The Mountaineers were completely at his mercy. For the first seven innings Whitehill was the only man who could touch him, and for five successive innings not a single local player reached first. Chesbro pitched a nice game, and up to the eighth inning held the visitors down to four hits, but in the eighth three singles and a sacrifice notted three runs. A base on tails, a bad throw gave them their only unearned run. Their only error, a fumble by McGann cost noth-

George Mahoney the King of College Pitchers-Virginia Could Not Hit Him. Pitchers-Virginia Could Net Hit Him.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—To-day's game with Virginia was more exciting than that of yesterday. It was truly a pitchers' game, and "George" Mahoney proved the victor. When he entered the box each inning the grand-stand and bleachers fairly shook with the cheers his admirers gave him, but he modestly received the ovation. His was a wonderful game. Only one clean hit was made off his delivery; only three men reached first base, and two balls were hit outside the diamond.

Twice he retired Virginia with a man on third. At the end of the game, on third. At the end of the game, Umpire Hedyler presented the bashful college pitcher with a laurel wreath, the gift of his supporters and a piece significant of his victory over all other college pitchers.

nificant of his below the field was lege pitchers.

The support given him by the field was very good. Virginia played a weak fielding game, but was wofully weak at the bat. McCarthy placed a nice home run in left field.

The Democrats Delighted at the Nomina tion of Russell.

THE WEAKEST OF ALL THE CANIDATES.

Senator Pritchard Was Master of the Situ ation and Wielded the Convention to His Own Ends-The Other Candidates Nominated,

RALEIGH, N. C., May 16.-Special .-Professor Potent, of Wake Forest, delivered the commencement address at Shaw University (colored) yesterday. He has just declined a $2,500 professorship at the University of Chicago.

It will be remembered that John B. Hussey, of News and Observer libel suit fame, was at one time Schator Butler's secretary, and he was recently dropped. It now turns out that the cause of the dropping was because he gave away some secrets to Senator Pritchard. There somo secrets to Senator Pritchard. There is no question but what our two senators are by no means friendly.

The convention last night finally got down to business. On the seventh ballot fusuell was nominated, it is declared, by fraud. It was a not and bitter fight, but at 2 A. M. the contest was ended, and Russell, the man who has promised negro after negro to give them positions of prominence, was declared the head of the Republican ticket. The following is the ticket nominated last night:

The Democrats are openly delighted at the result of the convention, for Russell was considered the weakest of the candidates for nomination.
Russell, in his speech last night, said he owned his nomination to the negro

Senator Pritchard was the absolute master of the convention. It is said this morning that the "Dockery men" say they will defeat Russell if in no other way than by voting the Democratic ticket. Rapidly the delegates and hangers on left the city to-day. The result last night changed the plan of organization. Senator Pritchard gives the two changes. There is a central committe of five from the general State Committee—Pritchard to appoint. Their duty to be in connection with Chairman Holten, to take charge of the campaign and conduct it. The other change, the platform, is made to conform with the national, so the Exceutive Committee will wait upon the assembling of the State, Convention to make up a temporary roil, that is to decide who has a prima facle right to a Senator Pritchard was the absolute make up a temporary roll, that is to de-elde who has a prima facte right to a
